Year 4 Poetry Slam

On Monday evening, four of our Year 4s represented our school brilliantly, at the annual Year 3 and 4 Poetry Slam which was held at the Dragonfly Theatre at Writhlington School. Aria, Esme, Henry and Kira confidently performed their performance poem, 'Have we got time'. The judges praised them for their confidence, expression and humour and awarded them third place in the competition. The standard was very, very high so we are particularly proud of our Year 4 poets.

A reminder of INSET Day dates 2024/2025

Monday 2nd September 2024

Wednesday 27th November 2024 - NEW DATE ADDED

Monday 21st July 2025

Tuesday 22nd July 2025

On Wednesday Mrs PC's daughter Mimi came into school and played her clarinet and saxophone to Sycamore Class in the morning, and then Cherry and Maple Class in the afternoon.

She played some familiar tunes including songs from Aladdin, Pink Panther and Moana, much to the children's delight! What a lovely end of term treat. Mimi was particularly inspiring for our Year 4 woodwind musicians Aria and Martha who performed for her on flute and clarinet. Well done girls.

We wish you all a restful summer and see you again in September.

Mrs Cowgill and Mr Turull
